C. H. WEAVER WINS AT COLUMBIA CLUB

Captures Handicap Medal Play With Net Score of 72.

NEWMAN SECOND WITH CLOSE MARGIN

Twenty-seven Qualify in First and Second Sixteens in August Handicap.

C. H. Weaver won the handicap medal play on the links of the Columbia Golf Club with the excellent net score of 72. Mr. Weaver's gross score was 88, while E. A. Newman, who also had a net score of 72, was second, with a gross score of 94.

E. B. Eynon and M. E. Danforth turned in the lowest gross scores, each man covering the course in 85, but they were handicapped to such an extent that they finished down in the list.

In the qualification round for the August handicap, twenty-seven qualified for the first and second sixteens. Weav-er and Newman, with scores of 72, lead the first division, E. I. Ober, with 84, bringing up in the rear. Commissioner H. L. West leads the second sixteer with the same net score as Mr. Ober but his gross score is not as low, and he does not therefore get into the most Pairings Not Made. The pairings for the first round have not yet been made, but they will be drawn shortly, and play in the first round will start this week.

vard football eleven has lost heavily by graduation, and much material will largely to this same bat of Cobb, has men who are going out,

The university eleven which played by graduation this spring, and of the four substitutes who were in the game last fall, two will also be gone. Following are the "H" men who will be eligible to play football next fall: Capt. F. H. Burr, '09; H. Fish, jr., '10; Hoar, '09; G. G. Browne, '10, and V. P. Kennard, '09. Captain Burr will probably play tackle, unless he should be shifted candidates for tackle are Fish, Ken-nard, Robinson, Hadden, Phillipbar, and Comstock, all of the second eleven, and Oveson and MacKay, of the fresh-

Shy On Good Guards. Dunlap, the freshmen guards. There are several other men who played guard on the second eleven and the freshmen eleven last year, but they lack weight, and for this reason will hardly be able to get a place on the university eleven. There seems to be plenty of end material. G. G. Browne, Forester, Houston and Pierce of last year's squad will be out. There will also be Cooper, of the second team, and Crowley, Corbett, Rogers, and Harding, of the freshmen. R. C. Brown, former captain of his freshman team, was ill last fall and couldn't play, and he ought to prove a valuable man next fall. Harding of the freshmen played tackle last season, but on account of his light weight will probably be tried out at end. No Quarter In Sight.

Both Newhall and Starr, having grad-uated, the position of quarterback will have to be filled with untried men. Cutting, Cate, and Galatt! are considered the most likely candidates. Cutting's work improved rapidly toward the close of last season, and he may develop into a likely man. At the spring practice this year, G. G. Browne, the sition. He was Grant's substitute throughout the season, and plays a quick, snappy game. The other centers are Smith, of the freshman team, a light but active player, and Dore the second team.

For fullback there is also an abundance of available material, more than for any of the other positions. Plumer and Waterbury, the university substitutes; White and Gray, the second team's backs, and Cutler and Minot, of the freshman eleven, are all first rate. the freshman eleven, are all first rate players. W. H. Brown, a former Exeter player, who was ineligible to play last fall, is a heavy and powerful fullback. As there seem to be only two egular candidates for halfback, Gilbert terial will be transferred to halfback.

halfbacks; E. H. Coy, fullback. The greatest work will be to train a quarterback to take Jones' place, and the candidates will be Kilpatrick, fullback, and captain of last fall's freshman team; Fred Daley, the Andover captain team; Fred Daley, the Andover captain specific property of the Andover captain team; Fred Daley, the Andover c two years ago; Steve Philbin, substitute halfback last year, and H. M. Wheaton, also a substitute.

Andrus and Hobbs, relegated to the second team last year on account of their studies, will probably take the places of Biglow and Paige. Captain Burch will take Alcoti's place at right end, and Logan or Haines, formerly of Andover, will be on left end. Coy will be back at fullback, and Murphy will be one of the halves, with Brides at the other, if he does not go back to guard. Cooney will leave the position 1 .252 of left guard and go to center again.

Detroit is taking legal measures to find out just what a motorcycle is, in the eyes of the law.

pens to be the president of the Detroit Motorcycle Club, will be made the defendant to a warrant from s justice's court, charging the policeman with riding a motorcycle without a license. This is in view of the fact that the corporation counsel has taken the ground that the motorcycle is subject to the same laws as automobiles, as to license and laws as automobiles, as to license and control. The police department will ask the justice to refuse the warrant, and will then mandamus him, in a friendly suit, to have a final decision made on the case. As the suit is likely to set an important precedent, it will be watched with interest by Detroit's large army of motorcyclists, as well as riders generally throughout the State.
